

J.S. Paluch
Janet Canino, CaninoJ@JSPaluch

1. What makes your company unique in this market?
 - a. Proximity - We have a local office and state-of-the-art printing plant in Coral Springs.
 - b. Superior Service - Your local parish consultant Janet Canino is your direct contact and is available to assist with all parish questions or concerns.
 - c. Authentically Catholic Content – our bulletin resource center is filled with theologically sound text content and thousands of pieces of artwork, and our World Library Publications staff is renowned for award-winning publications and staff expertise.
 - d. Comprehensive Solutions Focused on Parish Needs
 - i. Technology Solutions
 1. Custom Parish websites
 2. OneParish Digital Faith and Stewardship Platform and Mobile App <http://oneparish.com/>
 - ii. Communication Solutions
 1. Parish Branding and Identity Services
 2. Advertiser-supported Bulletins, including digitally-delivered Instant Bulletins™
 3. Parish Printing Services (newsletters, stationery, annual reports, welcome packet materials, and more)
 - iii. Parish Management Solutions – Catholic ministry training and coaching in partnership with Parish Success Group, a team of highly experienced and prominent ministry leaders with proven track records of fostering participation in parishes and in growing ministries for youth, adults, and families. <https://parishsuccessgroup.com/>
 - iv. Evangelization Solutions
 1. Vocations Support
 2. Advertiser-supported sacred art appointment calendars (with a portion of proceeds donated to support vocations and the Vatican Apostolic Library) <https://www.jspaluch.com/caladvert.aspx>
 3. Welcome Packet Printing
 4. Music, Liturgy, Ministry, and Prayer resources from World Library Publications (WLP) <http://www.wlp.jspaluch.com/>
2. What is your timeline to receive the content and deliver the bulletins? Our reliable and efficient transmission process assures on-time delivery each week. Each parish has an individual, agreed upon scheduled day and time of the week to transmit their bulletins to us for delivery prior to Sunday.
3. What resources do you offer to help bulletin editors (in person and/or online)?

- a. Our J.S. Paluch Subscriber Resource Center is filled with thousands of pieces authentically Catholic content, including theologically sound texts and thousands of pieces of artwork.
 - b. We offer direct phone and email support from dedicated team of bulletin design trainers to help with aesthetic quality as well as with technological support issues.
 - c. All bulletin editors receive an annual planning calendar with important contact information, holidays, transmission details, etc.
 - d. Regular email communication about the liturgical season, links to helpful resources, and more.
4. What training can you provide the parishes (would you be willing to present to a group at the Pastoral Center or would you prefer to meet with clients one-on-one)?
- We offer webinars and can customize in-person seminars for the parishes in your diocese based upon your parishes' or your diocese's specific needs. Training and support for bulletin editors is but part of what we offer. As mentioned above, through our partnership with Parish Success Group, we can offer ministry training and coaching. With our World Library Publications division, we provide clinicians and resources related to music, liturgy, Christian Initiation, and prayer. Our OneParish platform team is uniquely qualified to make the intersection of stewardship and technology in the parish make sense, and can help parishes see the potential offered by group and ministry messaging, crowdfunding, and online outreach as you seek to create more engaged disciples.
5. What electronic tools do you offer (app, website, bulletin converted into pdf or jpeg, online giving)?
- a. App – We offer the OneParish digital faith and stewardship platform, including a mobile app, daily faith content, pastor and ministry messaging, a crowdfunding option, online giving, and more. All of these features are also available via web access, for those parishioners who do not have a smart phone or who prefer to access the content and tools from various places throughout their day.
<http://oneparish.com/> and
<https://my.oneparish.com/account/login?returnPath=/>
 - b. Websites – OneParish also provides parish website design and hosting services.
 - c. Bulletin converted into PDF or jpeg – J.S Paluch's Bulletin Archive at <https://www.e-churchbulletins.com/> stores up to 6 weeks of parish bulletins as PDF files to be viewed or downloaded by parishes at their convenience. To share this bulletin archive page with parishioners, the archive page URL (web address) can be easily copied and shared on your parish website, in emails, or through your social media channels. Individual bulletins can be downloaded, saved, and shared as well. We also offer Instant Bulletins™
<https://www.jspaluch.com/BulletinSubscribe.aspx> weekly via an email subscription or through the OneParish app, and a link to current J.S Paluch parish bulletins on our public-facing website <http://www.findaparish.com/>

- d. Online Giving – We offer several options for giving via the OneParish Mobile App or my.OneParish.com website. We can help you create a custom Crowdfunding campaign and manage donations through the user-friendly OneParish back-end web-based administration system.
 - e. Also – All bulletin sponsors/advertisers are included on our website <https://www.findtrustedbusinesses.com/> at no extra charge, as a thank-you for supporting your diocese and its parishes.
6. What other “perks” do you offer clients (branding, automatic uploads to parish website, printing of resource guides, provide missals, etc.)?
- a. We can provide parish branding services ranging from a refreshed parish logo to a new parish logo to a complete parish identity package (logo, letterhead, website masthead, bulletin cover design, social media profile image/cover, etc.)
 - b. We can automatically post parish bulletins, including ad pages, to a parish website each week.
 - c. We are capable of printing virtually anything a parish needs — welcome kit components, annual reports, newsletter, business cards, parish directories, letterhead, business cards — all as part of a bulletin benefit package or for prices significantly below retail.
 - d. Our award-winning music and liturgy division, World Library Publications (WLP) is a leader in the Catholic publishing world. We offer an extensive selection of missals, hymnals, Mass settings, choral music, books, recordings, resources for children and families including children’s bulletins, ceremonial binders, sacred art, prayer books, and much more. <http://www.wlp.jspaluch.com/>

J.S. Paluch is 3rd-generation, family-owned Catholic business built on a tradition of excellence. We exist to help your diocese and its parishes create engaged disciples. We offer the most comprehensive parish services, as noted above, and we are the only such company that has its own expertly-staffed music and liturgy division. We guarantee the benefits provided as part of our bulletin printing agreements and our entire team prioritizes customer care in every one of our offerings and interactions. Your diocese can trust us as your partner for all of your technology, stewardship, communications, parish management, evangelization, and worship resource needs.